

The South Jersey Justice Choir is a grassroots movement that harnesses the empathetic, collaborative power of singing together to inspire change. Our goal is to mobilize "pop-up" choirs, bringing collective song to marches, protests, rallies, state buildings, and vigils, helping to lift and amplify marginalized communities. Guided by nonviolence and radical hospitality, the South Jersey Justice Choir strives to be open, inclusive, and affirming while building beloved community and contributing our voices to the broader movement for justice.

Singers of all experience levels are welcome! Most of our songs are intended to be easy to pick up on the spot, so whatever crowd we happen to find ourselves in gets inducted into the choir. To that end, much of our music comes from resistance groups or musicians with a similar focus on accessible, catchy, and pointed songs, for example:

We Will Protect Each Other

Peace Poets / Francisco Herrera

Spanish by Martín Urbach & Lu Aya

We will... Protect Each Other
We will... be everything we need
The good land... The wild Water
The whole Sky... is always on our side

Nosotros nos protegemos
Somos nuestra salvación.
La tierra, el agua, el cielo,
Siempre nos guiarán

La Esperanza The Peace Poets

[2x] La esperanza está aquí (Translation: Hope is here)
Te Vemos (We see you)
Te queremos (We love you)
Luchamos por ti (We fight for you)

I Believe That One Fine Day Ali Burns

[2x] I believe that one fine day
That the power of love will rise above the love of power
